Mallory Ware

Instructor

About me:

Mallory attends the University of Georgia and is pursuing her bachelor's degree in Marketing, minoring in Human Development and Family Science, and she will receive two certificates in Entrepreneurship and NonProfit Management.

Mallory's dance training began at the age of three and continues to this day. She is currently a member of Concert Dance Company at Dancefx. Her training includes an impressive array of companies from Georgia to New York City!

Mallory's true passions are dance and children. Being able to have a positive influence on children and share her love of dance is the greatest privilege and will continue to be her biggest reward as dance educator.
