About me:

Catherine Huff is a school teacher at Athens Montessori School, a dance teacher, and a mom. She grew up in Macon, GA and moved to Athens to attend at UGA. Catherine has been dancing since she was 2 and looks forward to dancing with her students at DanceFX everyday. She is currently a member of the Xhibition performance company at DanceFX.

Catherine enjoys hanging out with her children and husband, drinking a good cup of coffee (especially with her cat on her lap), baking, and sharing her love of dance with her community.
