Tikica Platt

About me:

Tikica Platt is an Athens native and proud mother of two sons—one serving as a U.S. Airman and the other an 8th grader. She holds a BA from Clark Atlanta University, an MBA from Piedmont University, and received professional training from the John Casablancas School of Modeling.

An exceptional singer, Tikica began performing at the age of 6 and has since graced the stage countless times. Her most notable performance was providing background vocals for Natalie Cole at the 1994 Super Bowl. She has also performed with ensembles such as the Athens Choral Society, appeared in musical theater productions like Linnentown: The Musical, and pursued modeling. In 2022, Tikica released her debut EP, IAMTIKICA, followed by three singles, including her latest release, "Christmas in Athens."

Tikica currently serves as Assistant Director at the Georgia Institute of Technology and previously worked as Fiscal Affairs Manager at the University of Georgia.

Having experienced domestic violence as a child, Tikica is deeply passionate about using her talent to support this very worthy cause!
