Jeremiah Bame

About me:

Jeremiah Bame is the Chief Nursing Officer at Piedmont Athens Regional Medical Center. He and his partner, Coleman, live in the Five Points neighborhood in Athens, and they have a 4-year-old goldendoodle named Monroe. Jeremiah and Coleman moved to Athens from Atlanta in May 2022 and have loved exploring Athens and getting involved in the community.

Jeremiah is an alum of LEAD Athens, class of 2024, and a 2025 participant in ACCA's RetroProm. In his free time, he enjoys playing tennis, taking Monroe on long walks, and experiencing the Five Points restaurant scene. He serves on the board of directors for Athens Technical College Foundation and the United Way of Northeast Georgia. This will be Jeremiah's first attendance at Dancing with the Athens Stars, and he is so excited to perform with his dance partner, Andie.
